

EARLY MODERN LITERATURE AND ENGLAND'S LONG REFORMATION

Edited by
David Loewenstein and Alison Shell

Table of Contents

Introduction: Early Modern Literature and England's Long Reformation

David Loewenstein and Alison Shell

1. Mirroring the "Long Reformation": Translating Erasmus' Colloquies in Early Modern England

Cathy Shrank

2. "Straunge and Prodigious Miracles"? John Foxe's Reformation of Virgin Martyr Legends

Thomas S. Freeman and Susannah Brietz Monta

3. Astrology and Religion in the Long Reformation: "Doctor Faustus in Swadling Clouts"

Phebe Jensen

4. "Superstition Remains at This Hour": The Friars Chronicle (1623) and England's Long Reformation

Harriet Lyon

5. Theology, Plain and Simple: Biblical Hermeneutics: Language Philosophy, and Trinitarianism in the Seventeenth Century

Kristen Poole

6. "Not Revenged, nor Repented of": Martyrs and England's Long Reformation

Karl Gunther

7. Preaching the "Long Reformation" in the English Revolution

Ann Hughes

8. Milton and the Creation of England's Long Reformation

David Loewenstein

9. Working, across the Very Long Reformation: Four Models

James Simpson

10. Sacrilege, Tractarian Fiction and the Very Long Reformation

Alison Shell

Index